adele reinhartz has been studying and teaching the gospel of john for many years earlier she chose to ignore the love hate relationship that the book provokes in her a jew and took refuge in an objective historical critical approach at this stage her relationship to the gospel was not so much a friendship as a business relationship no longer willing to ignore the negative portrayal of jews and judaism in the text nor the insight that her own jewish identity inevitably does play a role in her work as an exegete reinhartz here explores the fourth gospel through the approach known as the authority of god s word all scripture is given by inspiration of god 2ti 3 16a therefore the record of scripture is true and ideas that are contrary to the facts in scripture must be false nevertheless the bible lets us know that the traditions of men can deceive people into believing ideas that are not in the word of god in the bible the disciple whom jesus loved is identified as the writer of the fourth gospel he had access to the palace of the high priest he was the first one who believed after jesus resurrection and some thought he would not die scripture never identified this unnamed disciple as john but tradition has convinced people that he was john in spite of the biblical evidence to the contrary the truth in this case of the bible vs tradition is found in scripture so it will be the only source quoted herein integrity demands a hearing for the biblical evidence but submitting to the authority of god s word on this issue reveals more than just the truth about this disciple for what this insight teaches us about relying on scripture is the key to a better bible study method
